

Position: Flight Instructor – iATPL Program
Institution: Alberta College of Aeronautics
Location: Cooking Lake Airport (Sherwood Park), Alberta
Employment Type: Full-Time

The Alberta College of Aeronautics (ACA) is seeking a full-time Flight Instructor to join our Integrated Airline Transport Pilot Licence (iATPL) college diploma program. This is a unique opportunity to help train the next generation of airline pilots using a structured and scenario-based learning approach while also developing your own instructional career in a supportive and safety-focused environment.

We welcome applications from Class 4 instructors and above, with preference given to Class 3, 2, or 1 instructors. Senior-level applicants may also be considered for the Chief Flight Instructor (CFI) role.

Key Responsibilities

Provide dual flight and ground school instruction in accordance with Transport Canada standards and the Alberta College of Aeronautics' iATPL diploma program. Participate in curriculum delivery, student progress tracking, and regular instructional materials review to ensure program effectiveness and regulatory compliance.

Qualifications

- Transport Canada Class 4 Flight Instructor Rating (minimum)
- Preferred: Class 3, 2, or 1 Instructor Rating
- Preferred: Group 1 IFR
- Strong understanding of Transport Canada flight training requirements and documentation practices
- Interest or experience in scenario-based or two-crew simulator training is an asset
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills
- Commitment to safety, student development, and instructional best practices

Why Join ACA?

- Join a team delivering one of Canada's leading flight training programs, certified as a Private Vocational College
- Participate in innovative, iATPL training that prepares students for airline environments
- Advance your career with opportunities for mentorship and leadership roles, including CFI pathway
- Work in a professional, collaborative, and safety-driven environment
- Competitive compensation based on experience and instructor class

Compensation:

$15/hour for flying plus base salary based on instructor class and years employed with the college.
